Subject: RESITS/RETAKES/SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS

Your attention is drawn to the above subject. According to the University Rules & Regulations Governing University Examinations, Resits/Retakes/Special examinations are supposed to be done during Regular examinations time when such exams are on offer. Regular examinations mean scheduled examinations held at the end of each semester or as determined by Senate.

The end of second semester for the 2019/2020 academic year for the 2018 and 2019 groups of students will occur by the end of January 2021. Consequently, the First and Second year examinations will be administered between 18th -29th January 2021.

Students belonging to the 2018, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014 and even those in earlier cohorts who had issues with first and second year examinations to ensure they register in their respective departments and appear for the exams as timetabled between 18th - 29th January 2021 without FAIL. The final examination timetable will be availed on the University website. Already the draft timetable is on the website for your input.

All examination results for the 2018/2019, 2017/2018, 2016/2017, 2015/2016 and previous academic years can be accessed via the students' individual portals. Address any concerns with your Chair of Department and all relevant offices within the specified period before the examinations begin.
